Book One: DRAGONS AND WOLVES

By Drew Henriksen, ISBN 1-59507-040-0

"A nail-biting Tour de Force! I haven't read such a thrilling page-turner in years. Superb!"

Robert E. Gelinas
Author of The Mustard Seed

Over 400 years in the future, mankind has been driven to a nomadic existence. Being preyed upon by werewolves and fellow human Raiders, the last of the human tribes live a life afraid, and on the run—smelting silver for bullets and knives. How the werewolves came about is a mystery. Yet, there are also stories of dragons laying waste to both humans and werewolves alike. No one knows which of these ancient tales are true. What is known is that humanity may be hunted out of existence.

In this struggle for survival, two young lovers fight to have a normal life. An innocent night of passion together could be the undoing of all the tribe has achieved for generations. What lies ahead for them, Dragons or Wolves?

This magical, mystical fantasy is not for children or the faint of heart. It's raw and visceral—as sharp as the teeth of the wolf tearing out a throat, and as hot as the dragons breath, incinerating all in its path.
