NOT JUST A LADY

By Charles R. Yarbro

ISBN 1-59507-053-2

Evelyn Green sought a new life, heading west with her husband in a covered wagon, bound for California. She never expected to find herself widowed and stranded, until two men came into her life—one who taught her the ways of the west and how to handle a gun, the other the mysterious handsome stranger who saved her life and now represents the promise of a new one.

For Richard Ash, after being falsely accused of murder, finds himself on a journey is to take his orphaned nephew, Justin, to find a new home, but in the process he finds a special woman unlike any he's ever met—a woman who is NOT JUST A LADY.

NOT JUST A LADY is an authentic frontier tale filled with grit and guts, guns blazing, bandits attacking, whiskey-soaked saloons, deadly gangs of thieves, and the endless trail of wagon trains heading west—a place where men live or die by their knowledge of life on the trail and the speed of their draw.
