Bound by Blood
By Cynthia Zeuli

Aloysius Daye is a Shakespearian actor working in a play in Toronto. He's an accomplished stage performer, but much better known for his syndicated television role as a fictional vampire. His entire life is turned upside down when he encounters a real vampire, the beautiful seductress Yva, who has chosen him to become her companion and lover.

Yva is a 400 year old vampire, eager to turn Aloysius into one of her own kind, and then teach him of the passions of the night, and how to satisfy his every carnal appetite and craving. From Yva's careful instruction, Aloysius must learn to kill and to feed, and how to master the diabolical powers he's been given.

Lydia Frost is Aloysius' co-star and mistress. She can't understand his sudden change in personality and behavior, which may ultimately cost her life.

Lisa Daye, Aloysius' wife, can't believe it when she's ultimately confronted with the evidence that her husband may have indeed been transformed into a deadly creature of the night. Yet to save her husband's soul, and to protect her own life, she's determined to join a vampire slayer, and together seek to destroy both Aloysius and the monster that created him.

Bound by Blood is graphic and intense, filled with passion and blood.

He was loved by three women...

... his wife
...his mistress
... a vampire

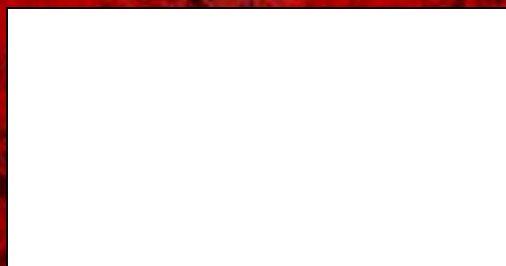

Renowned actor Aloysius Daye thought the beautiful, sexy young woman he encountered outside the stage door one night was just another groupie, eager for an autograph, or some attention.

He was wrong.
She wanted his blood and his life.

"Riveting... sexy... deliciously graphic and horrifying."
