Gelinas & Wolf, Inc. Congratulates ArcheBooks Publishing on the Release of their 10th Novel.

February 9, 2004, Gelinas & Wolf, Inc. announced today that their wholly owned subsidiary ArcheBooks Publishing had achieved a critical milestone in the publishing industry with the release of their 10th novel "To Know Joy" by author Patricia Tidwell Anderson. This is Patricia's second novel; the first "Speak to Me of Love" released during the 4th quarter of 2003. "To Know Joy", will transport you to a richer period where culture, romance and intrigue abound. As the story envelops you into a time filled with Richness and Splendor; a time where decorum, honor and propriety should stand at the forefront.

ArcheBooks publishes titles in (6) genres and offers the titles in Cloth Bound Hardcover and eBooks. Currently, (10) of the titles are available in eBook form and (8) of the titles are in traditional hardcover. ArcheBooks has (12) authors under contract securing publishing right to 19 titles. Projections are that the 9th and 10th hardcover titles will be available to the public during the 1st quarter 2004. ArcheBooks anticipates capturing more than 40 titles by year-end and having 30 or more published. Robert E. Gelinas, Publisher, indicated the success to date has been extraordinary; "During the next few weeks we have author book signings from New England to Florida and California to Washington, the acceptance has been just tremendous."

In September 2003, Gelinas & Wolf, Inc. established ArcheBooks Publishing as a wholly owned subsidiary. Through ArcheBooks, literary agents have an alternative for their authors; ArcheBooks specializes in "Original Works of Fiction," which are presented in Cloth Bound Traditional Hardcover and electronic form (eBooks). Bob Gelinas and Ralph Wolf, the principles of Gelinas & Wolf, Inc. believe in the power of the Internet and its impact on how traditional business development can evolve.
